

Vishay Intertechnology, Inc. Announces Conversion Period for 2.25% Convertible Senior Notes due 2030

July 6, 2026

MALVERN, Pa., July 06, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Vishay Intertechnology, Inc. (NYSE: VSH), one of the world's largest manufacturers of discrete semiconductors and passive components, today notified holders of its 2.25% convertible senior notes due 2030 (the "Notes") that the Notes are convertible, at the option of the holders (the "Conversion Option"), beginning July 5, 2026 and ending at the close of business on October 3, 2026. The Notes are convertible into cash, up to the aggregate principal amount of the Notes, and in cash, shares of the Company's common stock or a combination thereof, at the Company's election, in respect of the remainder, if any, of the Company's conversion obligation in excess of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes being converted. Any determination regarding the convertibility of the Notes during future periods will be made in accordance with the terms of the Indenture governing the Notes.

The Notes became convertible as a result of the last reported sale price of shares of the Company's common stock, for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during the period of 30 consecutive trading days (including the last trading day of such period) ending on, and including, the last trading day of the fiscal quarter ended July 4, 2026, was greater than 130% of the conversion price in effect on each applicable trading day.

The Notes are convertible at a conversion rate of 33.1609 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, which is equivalent to a conversion price of approximately $30.16 per share of common stock.

The Company has issued a notice to holders with respect to the Conversion Option specifying the applicable terms, conditions and procedures. The notice is available through HSBC Bank USA, National Association or by requesting a copy from HSBC Bank USA, National Association, which is serving as the conversion agent, at:
